Read the text and answer the questions 1-5:

One day, a man wearing a long, warm winter coat, jumped into a river and began to swim vigorously. All the passers-by stopped and stared at the unconventional swimming party. Although the river was quite deep, the man did not seem to be in any danger. He seemed to be well aware of what he was doing.

One of the people, staring at him from the bank, couldn’t help asking him why he was swimming in such a strange manner and whether he needed any help.

“I’m trying to wash my winter coat, that’s all!”, answered the swimmer.

“Well then, why don’t you try the washing machine?” asked the curious man.

“I did”, answered the former, “but I got so dizzy in there!”
